

Happy Friday Swans!

Hello Weather Detectives, what has the weather been like this week? Look on <https://www.bbc.co.uk/weather/nr13>, and see what is due to happen today? Is it typical of our season: summer? Keep an eye on the weather forecasts over the summer holidays. Somebody spotted a weather warning last week! What do you think it was for? (Yes, strong winds)

History Learning Objectives	S/A	T/A
I ways in which we can find out about the past .
I can use sources to find out about the past .
I can recognise and describe old and new toys .
I can play games that were played in Victorian times .

Starter 1: Close your eyes and try to picture and count all your toys! How many? Wow! Do you think children 150 years ago had as many? Why? Do your parents/guardians have an old toys? How old?

Starter 2: Look at the 3 Victorian Outdoor Games: Blind Man's Bluff, Mulberry Bush and Tom Fiddler's Ground and choose one to play. Have you played similar versions before?

Main Challenge 1: Follow this link to the interactive activity on toys and games from the past and from around the world.

<http://www.windowsonwarwickshire.org.uk/spotlights/toysandgames/index.htm>

Click on 'New or old' from the left hand side selection column to drag the pictures and words into the correct boxes.

Match the toy to the owner in 'Who owns me?'

Sort the toys into the different material columns etc.

Main Challenge 2: Choose an Old and New Toys sheet to complete (or complete them all).

Plenary: Self-assess your Learning Objectives and tick them in green, amber or red. Play with lots of toys over the summer holidays.

I look forward to seeing what you email in. Have a wonderful summer holidays. Warmest wishes and see you in September, Mrs Kemp :D
