

English

We will begin by looking at a transition/bridging unit, which looks to bridge the gap between KS2 and KS3.

We hope to produce fantastic work around local myth, magic and woodlands to inspire creative writing.

After, we will explore A Midsummer Night's Dream. We will have opportunities for reading, writing and dram.

Maths

Using White Rose Maths, we will cover the main objectives left this year. Geometry: Properties of shape.

We will also look at a short transition unit to prepare the class for secondary school.

Science – Light

We will build on the knowledge of light from Y3, explore the way that light behaves, including light sources, reflection and shadows.

Computing

We will be using Project Evolve to focus our learning on online safety.

Year 6 Newsletter Summer 2021

Welcome back for the final half term in Y6.

I know the class have thoroughly enjoyed learning with Mrs Pearson and Miss Rogers. I have been in contact with them both to handover for me to continue with the class until the end of term.

I am looking forward to teaching the class again.

Mrs Reeves.

We will be studying a mini topic this half term of Shakespeare and looking at A Midsummer Night's Dream.

This will focus on English, History and we will incorporate art too.

PSHE

Our PSHE this half term will be relationships and sex education. I will be in contact again soon regarding what we will be covering.

HOMEWORK

Children should continue with daily reading. We will continue with spellings for a few more weeks to ensure that we have covered all objectives and are confident with the Y5/6 statutory words. I will also set some pages from the remaining left in the CGP books.

MFL

The class will be looking at French holidays and transport

RE – Buddhism: Teaching and Authority

What sacred texts do Buddhists have? Why are they regarded as important? What teachings do they contain and what do these say about human life and how to live it? What other sources of authority or guidance do Buddhists have?

PE

Our PE days remain on Tuesday and Thursday. On Thursdays we will be focusing on sports day practice.

Music

We will be using Charanga for our music lessons this half term.
